NYS Office of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities (OMRDD)

OMRDD works to develop and maintain a comprehensive, integrated system of services to promote the attainment of independence, inclusion, individuality and productivity for persons with mental retardation and developmental disabilities through a variety of means including working to establish accountability for carrying out the policies of the state with regard to such persons; and to develop programs to further the prevention and early detection of mental retardation and developmental disabilities.