1) A brief statement about your office generally (e.g., mission, jurisdiction, size, nature of practice, etc.)

New York Farm Bureau, Inc. (NYFB) is a statewide membership organization dedicated to serving the educational, social and economic interests of its members. The mission of NYFB is to serve and strengthen agriculture. NYFB has approximately 27,000 members. The Legal Affairs Department handles all aspects of non-profit corporate work as well as legal issue advocacy and legal educational materials development.

2) A description of the experiences law students are likely to have at your office, including the types tasks a student may perform.

Interns will perform research and writing projects on a wide range of topics. Interns have the opportunity to draft articles for our legal newsletter.

3) Any special requirements you have for student selection (e.g., writing sample, class standing, experience, third year students only, background check, etc.)

Any special requirements for student selection (e.g., writing sample, class standing, experience, third year students only, background check, etc.)