

Shultz & Zedeck Lawyering Effectiveness Factors

Professors Marjorie Shultz and Sheldon Zedeck, in a comprehensive multi-year empirical study, developed the “lawyering effectiveness” factors through hundreds of group & individual interviews with lawyers, law faculty, law students, judges and some clients. Their study went on to identify behaviors that demonstrated effectiveness under each category and they developed tests that showed that there are potential ways to predict actual lawyering performance on a wider range of skills/abilities than the LSAT. Their work is on-going. If you would like more information, see: http://papers.ssrn.com/sol3/papers.cfm?abstract_id=1442118
