30th Anniversary Luncheon to Honor 30 Alumni in Government

The GLC is excited to announce its 30th year at Albany Law School. To celebrate, Albany Law School is honoring 30 alumni for their contributions in all levels of government. On June 3, 2008, at the State Room in Albany, these outstanding government lawyers will be presented with the Excellence in Government Service Award. U.S. Attorney Michael Garcia '89 will deliver the keynote address. The list of honorees can be found in our Spring 2008 Newsletter, and by clicking here. Please join us in celebrating by contacting Christina Sebastian, Director of Alumni Affairs, at (518) 445-3361, or cseba@albanylaw.edu.

May 20, 2008 - Warren M. Anderson Legislative Breakfast - Public Authorities: Evaluating the Reforms

The sixteenth annual Warren M. Anderson Legislative Breakfast Seminar Series will have its final gathering for 2008 on May 20. We are pleased to have Scott N. Fein, Esq., of Whiteman Osterman & Hanna, LLP, present on the topic of reforms within Public Authorities. To RSVP to this event, please contact Kelly Ashe at the GLC, (518) 445-3287, or kashe@albanylaw.edu. For more information regarding this event, please click here.
June 10, 2008 - Ethics for Non-Profit Organizations and Foundations

Professor Evelyn Brody, of Chicago-Kent College of Law, will deliver a speech on the principles in the governance of not-for-profits. Commemorating the 40th year of the Community Foundation, the GLC and the Estate Planning Council of Eastern New York are co-sponsoring this event. Continuing Legal Education credits will be offered. Please register by clicking here. To learn more about our speaker, Ms. Evelyn Brody, see the bio linked here.

May 15 & 16, 2008 - Statewide Conference: The Taylor Law on its 40th Anniversary

The right for public employees to form unions and bargain with employers was enacted by Governor Nelson Rockefeller in 1967. This conference will focus on the lessons learned over the past 40 years, preparing for the challenges ahead, and exploring effective ways toward resolution of employment issues. Chairman Jerome Lefkowitz of PERB will open up the discussion, and will be joined by Albany Law School Professor Vincent Bonventre, Chicago's prominent labor attorney R. Theodore Clark, and MIT Professor Thomas A. Kochan. To register for this event, contact Cornell's ILR office at (585) 262-4440, or PERB's Albany, NY Office at (518) 457-2676.

May 6, 2008 - Race and Education: A Rehearing of Brown v. Board of Education

New York State is still regarded as having one of the most segregated public school systems in the country. The Government Law Center will join the NYS Bar Association, NYS United Teachers, and the Capital District Black and Hispanic Bar Association in presenting a discussion on this topic at the State Bar Center in Albany. Featuring Albany Law School Professors Anthony Farley, Esq. and Donna Young, Esq., this program also offers 1.5 credits toward Continuing Legal Education. More information about this program can be found by calling NYSBA at 1(800) 582-2452. To register for this program now, please fill out NYSBA’s registration form.

Hon. Thomas P. DiNapoli

May 19, 2008 - The Spring 2008 Government Law Networking Breakfast

Members of the Government Law Center Network will join Albany Law School faculty for breakfast with Honorable Thomas P. DiNapoli, New York State Comptroller. To learn more about the GLC Network, please visit our Network homepage by clicking here. Those interested may also become a member of the Network and join us at this exclusive event.

Prof. Claudio Ramos Monteiro

June Property Rights Roundtable to Feature Portuguese Land Use Law Professor

Professor Claudio Ramos Monteiro will be the featured guest at a breakfast program focusing on property rights on Friday, June 6 at 8:00am. Monteiro is an Assistant Professor of Planning Law in the Law Faculty of the University of Lisbon, in Portugal; he is also a lawyer at Serra Lopes, Cortes Martins & Associados, where he heads the Planning and Environmental Practice Group. Currently serving as President of Ad Urbem, a multidisciplinary association dedicated to promoting Planning and Construction Law, Monteiro is also a former member of the Portuguese
Parliament. This is an invitational program. For more information, please email Dean Salkin at psalk@albanylaw.edu.