The GLC's Summer Events

Bulletin

(originally published June 2008)

Prof. Claudio Ramos Monteiro

June 6, 2008 - Property Rights Roundtable -

Featuring Prof. Claudio Ramos Monteiro

Professor Claudio Ramos Monteiro will be the featured guest at a breakfast program focusing on property rights on Friday, June 6 at 8:00 am. Monteiro is an Assistant Professor of Planning Law in the Law Faculty of the University of Lisbon, in Portugal; he is also a lawyer at Serra Lopes, Cortes Martins & Associados, where he heads the Planning and Environmental Practice Group. Currently serving as President of Ad Urbem, a multidisciplinary association dedicated to promoting Planning and Construction Law, Monteiro is also a former member of the Portuguese Parliament. This is an invitational program. For more information, please email Dean Salkin at psalk@albanylaw.edu.
Prof. Evelyn Brody

June 10, 2008 - Ethics for Non-Profit Organizations and Foundations  Professor

Evelyn Brody, of Chicago-Kent College of Law, will deliver a speech on the principles in the governance of not-for-profits. Commemorating the 40th year of the Community Foundation, the GLC and the Estate Planning Council of Eastern New York are co-sponsoring this event. Continuing Legal Education credits will be offered. Please register by clicking here. To learn more about our speaker, Ms. Evelyn Brody, see the bio linked here.

July 9, 2008 - Legal Checkup for Nonprofits

Co-sponsored by CARES, Inc., Pro Bono Partnership, and the GLC, this program will feature Rick Hobish, Esq. and Maurice Segall, Esq., both of the Pro Bono Partnership. It is designed to provide a complete overview of key legal issues for nonprofit organizations. Executive Directors, Board members, and key staff are invited to attend. Addressing the issues of board roles and responsibilities, state and federal filing requirements, and risk management, the August 5, 2008 - The 8th Annual Saratoga Institute on Racing and Gaming Law

Tuesday, August 5, at the Gideon Putnam Hotel. Speakers will be covering all the hot button legal issues involved with horse racing on both a national and New York State basis. This year, the focus will be in areas including the use of drugs in horse racing, efforts to make horse racing a safer sport, and the selection of a franchise holder for New York racing. Also on the agenda, the future of the OTB's, immigration policy and racing, and the effect of intellectual property and racing. Please keep a lookout for a conference registration form in the mail.

To be added as a new member to the mailing list, please contact Kelly Ashe, kashe@albanylaw.edu, or call (518) 445-2329.

SAVE THE DATES:

September 26, 2008 - Reducing Municipal Legal Costs Through Shared Tech and Resources

On September 26, the GLC is co-sponsoring with The policy articles, studies, papers and reports written by faculty, staff, and students of Albany Law School.

Racing and Gaming Today Bennett Liebman

The most complete news source in the Racing and Gaming industry, providing you with recent reports, optional email alerts, and news feeds. You will also find an extensive archive of reports from Bennett Liebman since 2001. Register at racing.albanylaw.edu.

Just Published

How to Find a Law Job in Government

Together with the State Bar, the Government Law Center has produced the ninth edition of Legal Careers in New York State Government. This unique guide provides information

Corporate Legal Standard, Inc. an innovative and highly interactive conference in Albany on ways to better manage the rising costs of legal services through shared tech and resources. Conference attendees will be able to provide input to develop a universal case and contract management/legal resource sharing system to allow cities to leverage their joint knowledge to develop a customized system that addresses the unique needs of municipalities. The audience will include municipal law departments and experts in legal process, content, technology and metrics. For more information, go to www.corplegalstandard.com, and click on "Conferences."

October 1-3, 2008 - God and the Land - Conflicts Over Land Use and Religious Freedom

Albany Government Law Review will present a symposium on this fascinating topic. Featuring more than a dozen experts in religion and land use law, including Chief Justice Randall T. Shepherd of the Indiana Supreme Court, and US Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Michael McConnell. Additionally, we'll welcome Marci A. Hamilton, the Paul R. Verkuil Chair in Public Law at the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. Ms. Hamilton will speak on how these issues affect local government during our Edwin L. Crawford Memorial Lecture. Edwin L. Crawford was the former Executive Director of the New York State Association of Counties, a devoted public servant, as well as an advocate for local government.
on how to conduct effective searches for employment in the public sector in all three branches of New York State government, as well as employment opportunities at the municipal level. Information about fellowships, civil service appointments, and clerkships are included. In addition to comprehensive information about the organization and functions of the office of counsel for the major state agencies, the book contains contact information for government law offices, as well as updated information about the state ethics law. To be available for purchase soon through www.nysba.org.

2008 Anderson Breakfast Series Available to Watch

Online
Thanks to Assemblyman Kevin Cahill for arranging

October 25, 2008 - Senior Citizens' Law Day

Join the GLC for the 15th Annual Senior Citizens' Law Day, a free, all day educational program for seniors, family members, advocates and care providers. Law professors, attorneys, and other experts will volunteer their time to provide participants with reliable and objective information about significant legal issues related to aging. The Nancy M. Sills Memorial Lecture will feature a presentation to open the event. Over 30 workshops will be offered throughout the day on diverse topics, such as: Aging Awareness, Alzheimer's Disease, Long-Term Care Insurance, and Protecting Small Estates. The event will also include the Third Annual Pro Bono Senior Clinic, which offers the opportunity to speak with practicing elder law attorneys about legal issues, free of charge, for 30 minutes, throughout the day.

To keep up-to-date on all upcoming events hosted or co-sponsored by the Government Law Center, check in with us at our webpage: www.albanylaw.edu/glc. Feel free to contact us at any time by calling (518) 445-2329, or emailing kashe@albanylaw.edu.

Thanks, as always, to our readers!
for the recording of the 2008 Warren M. Anderson Legislative Breakfast Seminar Series. If you missed the programs on The Legacy of the Lobbying Commission or Government Consolidation, you can view it at the GLC Programs website. The most recent program on public authority reform will be available shortly.

You have received this newsletter because you are a member of the faculty or staff at Albany Law School. Unsubscribe <<Email Address>> from this list.

Our mailing address is:
Government Law Center 80 New Scotland Ave Albany, NY 12208

Our telephone:
518.445.2329

Copyright (C) 2007 Government Law Center All rights reserved. Forward this email to a friend