Giving Securities to Albany Law School
Gifts of publicly traded and long-term appreciated securities may offer attractive tax advantages. A gift of stock with a long-term gain generally entitles a donor to a charitable deduction for the full current market value and avoidance of capital gains tax. Under IRS rules, the value of the gift is the mean of the high and the low price on the day the stock passes from the donor’s control. Do not sell the stock in your name and have the proceeds sent to us, as this will constitute a cash contribution and you will be liable for any capital gains tax.
