Albany Law School’s

Pro Bono Society

LGBT Rights Project

In conjunction with the Legal Aid Society of Northeastern NY, students develop educational and outreach material for practitioners, the public, and organizations serving the LGBT community, develop and host law day programs to address LGBT legal issues, and assist attorneys representing LGBT clients. This year’s focus will include the Gender Expression Non-Discrimination Act (GENDA).