

Matthew H. Mataraso is of counsel to Pitta, Bishop, Del Giorno & Giblin LLC which specializes in government relations. In addition, he is of counsel to Pitta & Giblin LLP.

Mr. Mataraso represents clients' interests before the legislative, executive branches and regulatory agencies of New York State Government. He has extensive experience in all phases of the legislative and administrative process including developing legislative strategies and drafting legislation. Mr. Mataraso's clients include representatives of the securities, taxation, labor, insurance, finance, telecommunications, manufacturing and academic fields.

Prior to joining Pitta & Giblin LLP, he was of counsel to Pryor Cashman Sherman & Flynn LLP in New York. He was previously assistant counsel to the New York State Assembly Minority Leader and assistant counsel to the Speaker of the Assembly. He was also previously assistant legislative representative to Former New York City Mayor John Lindsay and counsel to the Assembly Committee on the Affairs of the City of New York.

He is a member of the Bar of the State of New York and is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York, the U.S. Supreme Court and the U.S. Tax Court. Mr. Mataraso is a trustee of Albany Law School and is a current member and former chairman of the board of trustees of the College of Saint Rose in Albany. He is the former president of the Albany/Schenectady County Magistrates Association, was previously the chairman of the Council of Governing Boards and served as a trustee of the Commission on Independent Colleges and Universities.

He received a Bachelor of Business Administration from Siena College in 1955 and a J.D. from Albany Law School of Union University in 1958.